

Jada Jackson

Counselor, Speaker, Author, Life Coach, Talk Show Host
Orlando, FL

Education

Argosy University, Orange, CA ()

Doctoral Candidate in Counselor Education and Supervision

Palm Beach Atlantic University, West Palm Beach, FL ()

M.S., Counseling Psychology

Regent University, Virginia Beach, VA ()

B.A., Professional Communication, M.A., Human Services Counseling

Professional Experience

Jada is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor in the state of Florida and she is also a National Certified Counselor and a member of the National Board of Certified Counselors. She is a member of the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence, American Psychology Association, American Counseling Association, Christian Counseling Association and the National Communication Association. She is the author of “Be-You-Tiful”, a power-packed, practical application guide to becoming a better you.

As emotional Mojo Talk Show Host, Jada Jackson is known for her transparent, practical style of communicating and teaching. She enjoys speaking to young people and adults across the country, encouraging them to do their best, love themselves, and to reach for higher heights. Through her books, speaking and upcoming multimedia ventures, Jada is impacting the lives of many who are facing the same struggles and pain that she has experienced. Jada’s passion is to ensure that every life she touches will become more meaningful and more Be-You-Tiful!

Background

Jada is a native of the San Francisco Bay Area. Before establishing her publishing company, Jada began a rewarding career as Commentator and Spokesmodel for Ebony Fashion Fair, the world’s largest traveling fashion show. An entrepreneur at heart, she owns Jada’s Life Development Institute, Jada’s Modeling Institute and Be-You! Foundation, a nonprofit organization.

Awards and Honors

Recipient of proclamation from the city of Orlando for outstanding work in urban communities (2006)

Personal Information